

63 William Street Lismore VIC

If you are looking for a residential block in a quiet location that is a short walk to Lismore town centre, reserve, golf club and schools then this block is a must see. Power, water and phone is available at the front of the block and NBN is available. There are two lock up sheds as well as well-maintained lawns with trees and the property is fully fenced. This property would make the ideal location to build your new home (STCA) or use as a weekender. Lismore is approx. one hours drive to Ballarat and to Geelong. The town of Lismore offers a primary school, police station, fire station, medical centre, golf course swimming pool, community centre, petrol station and a variety of shopping.
